THE MEETINGS INDUSTRY CONTENT MARKETING MACHINE

KONGRES MAGAZINE MEDIA KIT 2022

THE SAME WORLD IN OTHER WORDS

KONGRES
NEW EUROPE MEETINGS INDUSTRY MAGAZINE

THE SAME WORLD IN OTHER WORDS

DIFFERENCE IS IN THE STORYTELLING NOT SELLING SERVICES

Kongres Magazine is the very first niche communications agency to specialize in the meetings industry. We have been creating urban stories spiced up with a strong dose of creativity and an “out of the box” vision for over a decade now.

Since time immemorial, words have been perceived as the strongest and most versatile weapon. People are born storytellers. Stories define our existence and shape our view of the world and perception of reality. Through stories, we learn both metaphorically and literally. Without stories, our emotional world would be empty, and life would be missing that “wow factor.”

Creating inspiring opportunities today occurs predominantly on digital platforms. These are hungry for good stories and quality content marketing.

In many ways, the meetings industry is similar to rock’n’roll. It is passion and dedication. It strives to be different and visible, showing with one’s heart and soul the power of speech at the right moment. It inspires the audience and leaves an impression. It creates a special connection with every listener and responds to their wishes, and ensures that they become fans. You know how to inspire, and we have a stage on which you can present.

Therefore, this year Kongres magazine has brought its readers even closer, breathed into its new content and changed it into an even more attractive publication, all with the aim of becoming a unique, creative and effective medium for dialogue between you onstage and your buyers in the audience. Therefore, we offer a range of solutions for your dialogue with readers, from text-writing and web optimisation to promotions in the magazine and on social networks.

Visit Tallinn Convention Bureau

“Kongres Magazine has provided a wonderful possibility to amplify Tallinn’s news and articles among international meeting planners. During these testing times, this kind of support is much appreciated, because the possibilities of sharing your message face-to-face are limited, to say the least. Therefore using different virtual channels is the best possible alternative and Kongres Magazine is doing a fantastic work with us. The attention to detail and willingness to think along, while publishing our stories and curating our microsite, is very professional. We hope to continue our collaboration, as the service provided has been beyond our expectations.”

“Maribor Pohorje Tourist Board has been cooperating with Kongres Magazine for the past ten years. During this period, Maribor was successfully presented as a business destination in the region and abroad. With the help of Kongres Magazine and the website kongres-magazine.eu, we have been given numerous opportunities to share holistic information regarding our congress offer, experiences and unparalleled stories. Furthermore, the website helped spread awareness about the latest novelties at the destination to the expert public. Equally appreciated are the platform’s added value, countless information and opportunities to exchange knowledge among colleagues in business tourism. We thank them for their cooperation and professional approach towards promoting and developing Slovenian business tourism!”

IT ALL STARTED IN 2006 ..AND WE ARE STILL GOING

The numbers don't lie... we are on top of our game!

We love statistics and we find them exciting, as they offer us and our partners the ability to compare ourselves to other providers in real time.

WHAT WE OFFER

The basic principle that we stick to since our start is to enable our partners with an access to the buyers' database merely in the combination with content marketing. For this reason, we have developed our own communication tool Kongres Weekly and Partner Microsite. We follow the best practice rules that have been established with the GDPR regulation adopted this year.

Kongres Weekly has been published 519 times so far; this ranks it among the oldest e-newsletters with the highest reach in Europe. In Kongres Weekly, electronic newsletter, we address event planners with relevant content. The event planners get by the E-newsletter inspired, while at the same time it advises them and offers them numerous useful tips. The tool is, on the ground of a large reach and directed addressing of the target group, very popular among our buyers.

We are different, progressive and innovative. We believe in the synergy of print and digital media going along with social media.
